Candidate Biography and Personal Statement (500 word limit)

My name is Steven Trigili, and I am honored to seek your vote to be re-elected to the North Regional Committee in 2025.

Having completed a six-year tenure as a Small Firm Representative on the FINRA Regional Committee in 2023, I am eager to continue my service by seeking re-election for another three-year term. With over 30 years of experience working with small firms, I have a deep understanding of the unique challenges and opportunities our industry faces. I am committed to providing direct feedback to FINRA's senior staff and leadership on the critical issues impacting small firms today.

Currently, I serve as the Chief Compliance Officer (CCO) and Anti-Money Laundering Compliance Officer (AMLCO) for Garden State Securities, Inc., a dually registered broker-dealer and investment advisor headquartered in Red Bank, New Jersey. In my role, my top priority is fostering a strong culture of compliance throughout the firm, ensuring that every aspect of our operations reflects this commitment. I manage all components of the firm's compliance program, and staying on top of the ever-evolving regulatory landscape is critical to my success. Like many of you in your roles as compliance officers, this involves navigating complex regulations, demanding continuous vigilance and a deep understanding of the industry's requirements.

Beyond my role as Compliance Officer, I am deeply involved in industry education. I regularly speak at national conferences, webinars, and panels, sharing insights on compliance and regulatory trends. For FINRA, I have presented at the Annual Conference and the North Regional Member Forum and recently served as a panelist at the FINRA Virtual Conference on Supervision of High-Risk Activities. You can access the recording of that panel here: <https://www.finra.org/events-training/virtual-conference-panels/supervision-high-risk-activities>.

Since 2005, I have been a frequent speaker at major industry events, including those hosted by NRS, NSCP, Regulatory Compliance Watch, and ACAMS. I cover topics such as maintaining a robust compliance program for small firms, regulatory trends in examinations, Chief Compliance Officer liability, and the evolving requirements of Regulation Best Interest (Reg BI).

Throughout my career, I have witnessed significant changes in the regulatory environment. As CCO, I am hands-on in managing day-to-day compliance operations and am consistently working to stay ahead of regulatory developments. My comprehensive understanding of compliance for dually registered firms allows me to offer a unique and informed perspective.

I am ACAMS-certified since 2010 and hold the Series 7, 24, 55, 63, 65, and 79 licenses. Additionally, I am an adjunct professor at the graduate and undergraduate levels in business, finance, and management at Georgian Court University, Ocean County College, Northern State University, and Southern New Hampshire University.

Born and raised on the Jersey Shore, I understand the values and hard work that go into supporting our families and communities. By volunteering my time to the Regional Committee, I am committed to bringing a fresh, practical perspective to the challenging regulatory environment we all navigate daily. I respectfully ask for your vote and the opportunity to serve our industry and community in this critical role.
