Leave leveraged funds as they are.

I am an individual investor and manage my own portfolio. I have used TQQQ for numerous years as part of my investment practices and use its volatility intentionally in my strategy. I am a long term investor. I do not day trade. I recognize the risk attributes of this leveraged fund.

The world is awash in risk every day —war, drought, disease, coups, gangs, famine, unemployment, threats— in many sectors. As an investor, I recognize and accept risk daily. Being able to choose to take leveraged risks is a choice I wish to retain. As such, I request you leave leveraged funds as they are.

Sincerely,
Byron Anderson
Florida
