I would like to voice my concern on the treats against leveraged funds. Leveraged funds are a wonderful investment vehicle that brings great success to many Americans. Over 25 years millions of us middle income Americans have used leveraged funds to build our 401k portfolios to one day retire on. Other standard investment funds don't yield the risk/reward opportunity that leveraged funds do and the opportunity to use said funds should be available to all. Thanks for hearing my concern.

Sincerely,
Jason White
