

From: Robert Cooney
To: Comments, Public
Subject: Wendy Barrios comment on 22-08
Date: Friday, May 6, 2022 3:25:13 PM

WARNING: External Sender! Exercise caution with links, attachments and requests for login information.

Regulating public investors choices when investing in leveraged funds is overreaching by FINRA.

Risks and rewards are obvious. Please step out of the way of free choice and market forces

The United States is not yet a socialist country. You would not like a socialist country that limits choices like you broadly suggest in your advisement. I do know. And it's awful.